Gerald Clayton, one of the most accomplished and promising young pianists in jazz, will collaborate with students from the Chicago Public Schools’ Advanced Arts Education Program and Chicago High School for the Arts (also known as ChiArts) at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Columbia College Concert Hall, 1014 S. Michigan Ave.

Presented by the Thelonious Monk Institute of Jazz in conjunction with the Chicago Public Schools, the event also will feature Chicago saxophonists Jarrard Harris and Anthony Bruno. Clayton has been in residence with the students this week; Harris and Bruno have been their Instructors.

Admission to the performance is free.
